

Is bed linen provided?

Yes, all bed linen is provided. Please do bring extra blankets during the colder months if you would like to

Are towels provided?

We provide 1 towel per person to be used in the Garden Washhouse. If you are going to be wild swimming or heading to the beach please do bring your own.

What cooking facilities are available?

Each bell tent has a small charcoal BBQ and cool box - please remember to bring your own coals. Basic BBQ utensils can be found in your cool box.

In the Garden Kitchen there is an allocated shelf for each tent in the cupboard and fridge

Crockery is available at the outdoor kitchen - this includes saucepans, plates, cutlery - everything you would expect to find in a basic home kitchen. Please do feel free to bring any specific equipment with you.

Tea, coffee and sugar are available in the garden kitchen

Tea towels, cloths and washing up liquid are provided in the Garden kitchen

What washing facilities are available?

The Garden Washhouse is a communal facility - there are 5 individual bathrooms (one with a bath) that are shared between glamping properties.

The Garden Washhouse is approximately 50 metres from the bell tents

There are no power outlets in the Garden Washhouse for hair dryers

Is seating provided in the tents?

Each bell tent has a small wooden table and logs as stools outside. There are no additional chairs inside the tent.

The Garden kitchen has a long dining table and benches and a couple of sheltered wooden tables and chairs

Other Information

There are areas of deep water around the site. Riverside Bell Tent is closest to the water so do bear this in mind if you have young children

There are no power outlets in the tents

You can use power outlets in the Garden Kitchen to charge appliances

Logs, kindling and matches are provided to start the pizza oven and fire pits

Hand sanitizer and hand wash are readily available around the site

The bell tents are not heated - the temperature in the bell tent is largely dependent on the weather outside.

Unfortunately, we are unable to control the weather so please bring layers as required.